

Diversity Statement

The International Fire Service Accredited Congress (IFSAC) recognizes the value that member institutions place on their histories, traditions, and missions, and the effect of such factors on their policies and practices. Therefore, IFSAC does not prescribe a set of actions to address issues of diversity. However, through its Criteria, IFSAC does expect its member organizations to evidence positive responses to issues of diversity and to show the relationship of those responses to the integrity of their operations.